ELMER THE PATCHWORK ELEPHANT!

The famous Elmer, star of the classic picture books, has lost his beautiful patches! Using colored paper squares, you can return Elmer to his colorful self.

Supplies in kit

- 1 printed template
- pre-cut colored squares

What you'll need from home

- scissors
- glue stick or liquid school glue
- colored markers, pencils, or crayons

Directions

1. Using your glue stick or liquid school glue decorate Elmer's body with the colorful squares. If needed cut the squares to a size that helps the patchwork to fit together.

2. Once you have covered Elmer with his "patchwork squares" you can color his ears any color you like, and Elmer will be colorful once more!
